

Early Journal Content on JSTOR, Free to Anyone in the World

This article is one of nearly 500,000 scholarly works digitized and made freely available to everyone in the world by JSTOR.

Known as the Early Journal Content, this set of works include research articles, news, letters, and other writings published in more than 200 of the oldest leading academic journals. The works date from the mid-seventeenth to the early twentieth centuries.

We encourage people to read and share the Early Journal Content openly and to tell others that this resource exists. People may post this content online or redistribute in any way for non-commercial purposes.

Read more about Early Journal Content at <http://about.jstor.org/participate-jstor/individuals/early-journal-content>.

JSTOR is a digital library of academic journals, books, and primary source objects. JSTOR helps people discover, use, and build upon a wide range of content through a powerful research and teaching platform, and preserves this content for future generations. JSTOR is part of ITHAKA, a not-for-profit organization that also includes Ithaka S+R and Portico. For more information about JSTOR, please contact support@jstor.org.

removed and cleaned. If the floor of any such bakery or confectionery or room is below the adjacent street level, no such materials or products shall be stored nearer to such floor than 1 foot.

SEC. 68. Every bakery or confectionery shall be kept clean at all times and free from rats, mice, or vermin and from all matter of an infectious or contagious disease.

SEC. 69. No bakery or confectionery shall be located over or under or within 30 feet of any place or building where horses or cows or other domestic animals are housed or maintained, or where the processes of rendering, glue making, fertilizer making, and other foul-smelling products are carried on.

SEC. 70. Operatives, employees, clerks, and all persons who handle the material from which food is prepared in a bakery or confectionery, or the finished product, before beginning work and immediately after visiting a toilet or lavatory shall wash their hands and arms thoroughly in clean water, and shall dry them on individual towels kept and maintained in a clean and sanitary condition for the use of each thereof. The use of a common towel is hereby prohibited.

SEC. 71. The city health officer and the authorized inspectors and employees of the health department shall have the right at all times to enter to make such inspection and such record of the condition of any bakery or confectionery as they may deem necessary, and if such inspection shall disclose a lack of conformity with this ordinance the health officer may require such changes, alterations, or renovations as may be necessary to make such bakery comply with the provisions of this ordinance.

SEC. 72. All vehicles from which any bakery or confectionery product is sold shall be kept in a clean condition, and all baskets, trays, or other containers in which any of said products are conveyed through the streets shall be closely covered in a way to exclude dust, flies, and other sources of contamination.

Foodstuffs—Production, Care, and Sale. (Ord. C1848, Jan. 4, 1915.)

SEC. 73. Every butcher, grocer, milk and cream dealer, or peddlers, owners of restaurants, hotels and boarding houses, and every person who shall have in his possession or who shall buy or sell, or offer to buy or sell, any meat, fruit, vegetables, milk, cream, market produce, or any other food supplies, and the agents or employees of any of the foregoing persons, shall allow the parties authorized by the health officer to freely and fully inspect their cattle, milk, meats, fish, game, fruits and vegetables, market produce, and any other food supplies, held, offered, or intended for sale, shall be required, under oath, to answer all reasonable and proper questions asked by either the health officer or deputy or a member of the board of health relative to the condition thereof, and of the places where said articles may be kept or stored, and shall allow the same to be examined by said officer.

SEC. 74. It shall be unlawful for any person or corporation to have in his or its possession for purposes of sale, or to offer for sale any meat or meat product containing any foreign coloring matter, or any preservative, other than common salt or saltpeter. Saltpeter may be used for preserving or pickling purposes in the proportion of 3 pounds or less to 50 gallons of pickle.

SEC. 75. It shall be unlawful for any person to sell or offer for sale, or to have in his possession for the purpose of sale, any meat, fish, poultry, game, fruit, vegetables, berries, milk, cream, market produce, or any other food supplies for use as human food that is decayed, diseased, unwholesome, or from any cause unfit for human food, and it shall be the duty of any authorized officer of the health department to at once seize and confiscate the same or destroy same on premises where found by any method approved by the president of the board of health, and such seizure and confiscation shall not exempt such person from prosecution hereunder.

SEC. 76. The owner, lessee, or occupant of any room, stall, or place where any meat, fish, poultry, fruit or vegetables, milk, cream, market produce, or any other food supplies shall be stored, kept, or offered for sale shall put and keep such place in a cleanly and wholesome condition. Every person having charge of, interested, or engaged in, whether as principal or agent or employee, the care of or sale of any meat, fish, poultry, fruits, berries, vegetables, milk or cream, market produce; or any other food supplies whatsoever, whether in its natural state or manufactured; shall maintain and keep the same in a cleanly and wholesome condition, and they shall be kept with the highest degree of care so as to avoid pollution by exposure to the elements or to dust or flies, or by cats, dogs, or any other animals, or any fowl; and such person or persons shall not allow the same or any part thereof to be poisoned, infected, or become unsafe or unwholesome, or in any way use any injurious chemicals, or any chemicals in such quantities as to make such meats, fish, poultry, fruits, berries, vegetables, milk, cream, market produce, and any other food supplies injurious or unwholesome for human food. In the event any owner, lessee, or occupant of any stall, place, market, or storeroom shall refuse, neglect, or fail to put same in a clean and sanitary condition when notified so to do by the health officer, after giving reasonable notice to such owner, lessee, or occupant as aforesaid, the health officer shall have the right to close his place of business or storeroom and confiscate all perishable meats, fish, poultry, game, fruit, berries, market produce, or any other class of food supplies and keep the place so closed until such time as the said place shall have been put in a clean and sanitary condition.

SEC. 77. No person who has consumption, scrofula, or any venereal disease, or any contagious or infectious disease, or any communicable skin disease, shall work in any grocery store, bake shop, fish shop, meat shop, market or sausage manufacturing establishment, and no owner, manager, or person in charge thereof shall knowingly permit or require any such person to be employed therein or in connection therewith.

SEC. 78. Meat or any other article which may be used for human food without cooking, peeling, paring, or shelling, or any food product not enveloped or protected from contamination by the touch shall not be handled by the public, and food vendors shall make provision by screening or covering, or glass cases, against such handling. The wrapping of food in newspapers, old sacks, or any paper or substance that has been previously used, is hereby prohibited.

SEC. 79. It shall be unlawful for any person, firm, or corporation to pile, keep, expose for sale or offer for sale any food whatsoever for human use ~~or~~ consumption on or in any of the public market places, sidewalks, streets, avenues, or alleys of the city of Spokane unless such food and the containers thereof shall be placed at a height above the surface level of such public market places, sidewalks, streets, avenues, or alleys of not less than 2 feet.

SEC. 80. It shall be the duty of every person knowing of any fish, meat, poultry, game, fruit, or vegetables, milk, cream, or any other food supplies being bought, sold, offered or intended for sale or use as food for human beings, or being in public places or market in such city, knowing the same to be in an unhealthy or unwholesome or bad condition, or in anywise unfit for human food, to at once report such facts, and particulars relating thereto to the health department.

Health Department—Employees—Powers and Duties. (Ord. C1848, Jan. 4, 1915.)

SEC. 81. The health officer and all inspectors and quarantine officers of the health department shall have and exercise all the power and authority of a police officer and shall perform such duties as may be provided by law or prescribed and required by the regulations of the board of health or directed by the health officer. The hours of labor of all employees in the health department shall be the same as the regular police force of the city and including Sunday.

Wells, Springs, etc.—To be Closed When Water is Impure. (Ord. C1848, Jan. 4, 1915.)

SEC. 82. Whenever the attention of the health officer is called to the water in any well, cistern, or spring, or other source of supply in the city of Spokane, which, after a careful examination by said health officer, or by qualified examiners, is found to be